ABOUT OUR PRICING CATEGORIES

Schools and libraries pay a higher price for our DVD documentaries in order to obtain public screening rights, which grants permission to screen the DVD before a public audience or to be used in a classroom. Turning Tide Productions is committed to producing cutting-edge social issue video documentaries. DVD sales and speaking engagements are our primary means of generating the revenue necessary to support the independent production and distribution of our videos. If you believe your organization fits into one of these categories but does not have the resources to afford that price, please contact us.
